Colleges of the Arts and Sciences

Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Arts in Journalism Degree Requirements

Winter Quarter 2005 (January 10, 2005)

The Aim of the Arts and Sciences

Five colleges comprise the Colleges of the Arts and Sciences federation: Arts, Biological Sciences, Humanities, Mathematical and Physical Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Sciences.

The aim of the Arts and Sciences is to assist you in learning to develop your skills and abilities in a variety of areas. Students in the Arts and Sciences colleges learn about the ethical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of life as expressed in the history, the literature, and the art of the past and present. In addition to learning about the nature of human beings, their institutions, languages, and cultures, students also acquire knowledge of the physical environment, biological processes, and the abstract language of mathematics.

The Bachelor of Arts (BA) and the Bachelor of Arts in Journalism (BA in Jour) curricula are designed to ensure that you are provided with as much information as possible in the central fields of learning in which you do not expect to specialize, and to provide a carefully planned series of requirements sufficiently elastic to meet your needs and still offer a sound foundation for later specialization for your major.

In addition to the General Education Curriculum, students pursuing the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Arts in Journalism degree complete general college and major requirements, and elective course work while accumulating a minimum of 191 credit hours.

Arts and Sciences BA and BA in Jour Majors

The information contained in this curriculum sheet pertains to students following one of the majors listed below. In addition, each college offers the interdisciplinary honors contract and the personalized study program majors.

Student Responsibility

You must assume responsibility for knowing the published policies governing the curriculum you are pursuing, as well as the regulations and procedures of the college and the University. This curriculum sheet should be used in conjunction with the Course Offerings Bulletin and the Colleges of the Arts and Sciences Bulletin.

Prerequisites

You are responsible for taking all prerequisites to courses in which you enroll. Failure to satisfactorily complete prerequisites may delay graduation.

General College Requirements

The following degree requirements apply to students entering The Ohio State University Autumn Quarter 1990 and thereafter. If four or more years have elapsed between any two successive quarters of enrollment at the University, the student must fulfill the requirements for the degree in effect at the time of reenrollment.

- A minimum of 191 credit hours. Courses at the 000 level (remedial course work); English 100.01, 100.02, 109.01, and 109.02; Mathematics 100, 102, and 103; and credit hours earned in repeated course work do not count toward the 191 hour minimum requirement for the BA or BA in Jour.

The number of hours required to complete the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Arts in Journalism degree with a given major will depend on your program and goals. Some students, including those who wish specific professional or studio training, those preparing for graduate study in certain disciplines, or those with multidisciplinary goals, may need to plan programs of more than 191 quarter hours. Other students may find that their chosen programs of study do not reach the minimum credit hour requirement. If the combination of course work for the GEC, prerequisites, the major program, and 15 hours of Free Electives does not add up to 191, you have many options to follow.

You could pursue a second major, a minor, or a combination degree program; set up a package of electives on a specific topic; do an internship; or study abroad. You are urged to meet with an Arts and Sciences counselor to work out a plan that best fits your needs and interests. In no case shall the number of hours required for graduation be fewer than 191.

Within this minimum 191 credit hours, you must have:

- A minimum of 176 hours in Arts and Sciences or Arts and Sciences-approved courses.
- Non-Arts and Sciences course work may include a maximum of six credit hours of education: physical activity and educational services courses (all 100 level courses except for 102, 103, 122, 137, and 138), a maximum of 12 credit hours of technical credit, or other non-Arts and Sciences hours, with the total not to exceed 15.
- A maximum of 80 credit hours (excluding 100-level courses) in a single area (registrar's listing) may be applied toward the minimum 191 hours for the BA and the BA Jour degrees.
- A minimum of 60 hours of Arts and Sciences or Arts and Sciences-approved upper-division course work. Upper-division courses are defined as all Arts and Sciences courses at the 300 level or above, Philosophy 250, all courses taught by the College of Mathematical and Physical Sciences at the 200 level, and foreign language courses taught in the language at the 200 level. These 60 upper-division hours include hours earned for the GEC, the major, and electives.

- A minimum of 45 quarter hours of credit earned through regular course enrollment at this University, and regular course enrollment in the last quarter in one of the Arts and Sciences colleges.
- A cumulative point-hour ratio of at least 2.00 on all work attempted at The Ohio State University.
- An application for the degree on file in the Arts and Sciences Graduation Services Office (141 Denney Hall) one quarter prior to the granting of the degree.

Free Electives

The University requires that the undergraduate curricula in the Colleges of the Arts and Sciences provide for a minimum of 15 credit hours of Free Electives.

General Education Curriculum (GEC) Requirements

The curricular requirements are divided into eight categories for the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Arts in Journalism degrees. In fulfilling the GEC, students with junior or senior standing may petition (in advance) to substitute upper-division courses which meet the spirit of the GEC for courses on the GEC. Students transferring from other colleges and universities often can meet part of the GEC with approximately equivalent courses already taken. Courses for each transfer student shall be reviewed, and those that meet the spirit of the GEC shall be accepted. You must earn at least a D in a course for it to meet a GEC requirement. Courses taken on a pass/non-pass basis cannot be used to meet GEC requirements.

Courses Used to Meet More than One Requirement

You are permitted to double count courses used to satisfy the Diversity Experiences Category with another GEC category or with the major.

The course used to satisfy the data analysis requirement may double count on the GEC and on the major, if it is at the 200 level or above and approved by the faculty adviser.

Group Studies and Individual Studies

Group studies (X94 courses) and individual studies (X93 courses) are not acceptable for meeting GEC requirements except when a specific experimental course has been approved by the Arts and Sciences Committee on Curriculum and Instruction.

Requirements for the Major

Your major program must consist of at least 40 hours of credit in courses numbered 200 or above as prescribed by your faculty adviser. Your major may consist either of courses offered in only one department or of courses from allied departments; however, at least 20 of the 40 hours are to be in courses offered by the department of the major. Your major may or may not include course work that fulfills the GEC third writing requirement. Note that this requirement is not in effect for all majors; please consult with your faculty adviser.

You must earn at least a C- in a course in order for it to be listed on your major. However, you must receive a 2.00 cumulative point-hour ratio for all major course work. If you became an art major Winter Quarter 2003 or later, you must have a minimum cumulative point-hour ratio of 2.25 in the art major course work in order to graduate with that major. If you earn a D+, D, or an E in a course on your major program, the course cannot be counted toward the major. Your faculty adviser will decide if the course should be repeated or if another course should be substituted for it. Courses taken on a pass/non-pass basis cannot be used on the major.

Your faculty adviser must approve all courses comprising your major on a major program form. Changes in your major may be made only with the written approval of your faculty adviser.

The major program form and any revisions must be filed in the Arts and Sciences office in Denney Hall at the time approval is given.

If you change from one major or curriculum to another, consult with an Arts and Sciences counselor. Such changes may result in modifying requirements to such an extent that your date of graduation might be delayed.

A transfer student (i.e., from another institution) must have on the major program at least 20 credit hours earned at The Ohio State University. The student's faculty adviser, the chairperson of the department concerned, and the appropriate assistant dean must approve any request for a variation in this policy.

B. International Issues

As you complete the Natural Science, the Social Science, and the Arts and Humanities categories (or your major), ensure that your selection includes courses that fulfill the international issues requirement. You are required to complete two international issues courses, one of which must be a non-western or global course. The other course may be another non-western or global course, or a western (non-US) course.
